- The Company remunerates directors and executives fairly and responsibly;
- The establishment and maintenance of compensation and benefit plans, policies and programs are designed to attract, motivate and retain personnel with the requisite skills and abilities; and
- The disclosure of director remuneration is accurate, complete and transparent.

2.2. COMPOSITION

In addition, at least two (2) members of the Committee shall also be "Non-employee directors" within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 ("Rule 16b-3") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

• APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

The Board may remove any Committee member with or without cause.

A director shall not serve as a member of the Committee if any executive officer of the Company serves on the board of directors of another company that employs such director as an executive officer.

• CHAIRPERSON

The Board shall designate one member as Chairperson.

The Committee shall report regularly to the Board regarding its actions and make recommendations to the Board as appropriate.

The Committee shall meet at least annually with the Company's chief executive officer and/or executive chairman and such other senior executives as the Committee deems appropriate. The Committee should meet periodically in executive session without the presence of management.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.2. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion, but only to the extent consistent with the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws, and other applicable law and stock exchange rules.

The Committee, in discharging its responsibilities, shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to select and retain compensation consultants, special counsel and other expert consultants or experts to assist with the execution of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in this Charter. However, the Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of its compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor to the Committee, and the authority granted in this Charter shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties under this Charter.

Prior to selecting, or receiving advice from any advisor, the Committee shall consider the independence of such advisor based on any applicable criteria specified by the SEC or Nasdaq, including the independence factors listed in Nasdaq Rule 5605(d)(3) and whether such advisor has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K; provided, however, that the Company shall not be prohibited from obtaining advice from advisors that it determines are not independent after considering the Nasdaq independence factors and potential conflicts of interest.

The Committee shall set the compensation and oversee the work of any such consultants or experts. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for:
